

BIGGEST SYNDICATE

IN MISSOURI TO MEET IN LARGEST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Will Take Place in City of St. Louis, Nov. 16, 17 and 18.

As no other organization in Missouri enrolls as many as 600,000 members, the Missouri Sunday School Association claims to be "Missouri's Biggest Syndicate." The Third Baptist Church, St. Louis, has the largest Sunday school in Missouri, enrolling 2,350 members. Their building will be main headquarters for the "Golden Jubilee" Convention of the Missouri Association, Nov. 16, 17 and 18.

DR. W. J. WILLIAMSON.

From Tuesday morning, Nov. 16, to the close, Thursday night, there will not be a dull moment—no time will be wasted in the usual welcomes, responses, etc. The opening session, for example, will contain a "Service of Song" led by Prof. S. H. Meyers of Detroit; a real Bible study, by Dr. John A. Ritor, an address on "Christian Publicity," by Dean Walter Williams of the University of Missouri, and one on "Working Together," by Dr. W. J. Williamson.

The convention theme will be "Forward," which will also become the slogan for the coming year. The closing session will contain an illustrated address on "Famous Sunday Schools of America," by Prof. Walter S. Athearn of Drake University, Des Moines, and the climax will be reached in the closing message, "Forward," by Dr. Frank G. Smith of Kansas City.

MRS. MARY F. BRYNER.

Other specialists of national reputation will be: W. C. Pearce, John L. Alexander and Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner of the International Sunday School Association; Mrs. Antoinette A. Lamoreaux, author of "Unfolding Life;" Dr. J. N. McDonald, community specialist; Mrs. Katharine W. Eddy and John H. Eagle of Kansas; Prof. J. D. Elliff of Columbia, Prof. George Platt Knox of St. Louis and many others.

Every phase of Sunday School work will be represented in the "educational exhibit" by maps, charts, programs, advertising material, pupils' handiwork, etc. Commercial publishing houses will also display all kinds of helps and supplies.

DR. FRANK G. SMITH.

In reality, the convention will be a great training school offering "normal" instruction in the principles and methods of religious education. There will be 15 separate conferences of half a day each, besides 10 general mass sessions. The Wednesday afternoon "Recognition of Counties" service will be exceedingly interesting, giving a birdseye view of conditions over the whole state and showing the relative standing of the various counties in Sunday School efficiency.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the "Golden Jubilee" and fully 2,000 delegates will attend. Full particulars, programs, etc., may be had of the Missouri Sunday School Association, Fullerton Building, St. Louis.

Draw Your Own Conclusions. "Why," asked the weary-looking woman, "do you constantly refer to yourself as the goat of this household?" "Because," replied the irritable man, in a loud tone of voice, "a goat is supposed to be able to eat anything and act as if he enjoyed it."—Washington Star.
